Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Private Investigator Michael Mickey Ross is again on the move in the third book of this trilogy and many people have told me it is the best of the three books. The Golden Jackal is a story about a hanging, a homosexual encounter, a search for Ravine and a serial killer. During this episode Ross is drawn into a series of investigations one of which is a hanging in the small town where he lives and works. His friend Ely Crosby asked Ross for his help to find the murderer of his son s lover and a juror seeks his help to stop a serial killers advances. Ross renews and solidifies his relationship with, SAIC Dan Sheppard of the FBI. Mickey is also approached by an old broken down Viet Nam chopper pilot who is suffering the after effects of Agent Orange. The pilot has with him a deteriorated old book half typed and half written in pencil. The book was left to his family by his grandfather. The cover was held together with rubber bands and the text had various quotes in it that lead nowhere, until, they started following a direct quote from the Bible in their search for Ravine. Mickey s friends, family and team attempted to decipher what the words meant and this leads to an adventure in upstate New York. While this series of events is taking place Ross continues in his new lifestyle as part of the rich and famous. The Golden Jackal is an action packed story that brings back to Ross memories of his active military days where as a chopper pilot in Nam he was called by Charlie, the...
