Reviews

Very useful to all category of men and women. I actually have study and i also am certain that i am going to going to read through again once more down the road. Its been written in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only soon after i finished reading this publication by which basically altered me, modify the way in my opinion.

Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: . was preceded by three separate mediation proceedings begun on May 5, 1916, an agreement to arbitrate being reached on June 10, 1916. The general results of the arbitration were: New York Central Railroad, Buffalo and east: Employees working more than nine consecutive hours per day, who have been in the service one year or more, awarded seven days annual vacation with pay; after three years service, 10 days annual vacation with pay. Employees working nine hours or less per day, after two years service, awarded seven days annual vacation with pay. Employees request for a rule relieving them from flagging crossings, operating pumps, or caring for switch lamps was denied. An increase of 10 per cent in salaries of all employees included in the arbitration was awarded, such increase to be distributed as agreed upon by the railroad officials and telegraphers committee. The request for inclusion of operators in the New York office in this schedule was denied. New York Central Railroad, west of Buffalo: Employees request for relief from, or extra compensation for, cleaning or caring for batteries, lamps, switches, interlocking machinery, pumps, etc., was denied, except where then in effect. Salaries were ordered based on regular working days of the month, with overtime for all hours worked on Sundays and holidays. The same award with reference to annual vacations with pay for employees working specified hours per day was made as in the case of employees Buffalo and east (above). An increase of...
