Winchester, in Defense of the Act of the Synod of Philadelphia: In the Case of the Assembly s Second Presbytery of Philadelphia Moderator, - Before entering fully into the merits of this case, permit me to notice a remark made by the last speaker, in relation to the act of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, by which, but one ministerial and one lay delegate are commissioned to this Assembly. It was said that by the act of Synod appealed from, that Presbytery was entitled to a larger delegation on this floor, but by sending up their present number, that Presbytery has declared its own belief in the unconstitutionality of the Synodical act. But, Sir, by a reference to the minute of Presbytery appended to the commission of their delegates, it will appear that the right to an increased number, is expressly claimed, but the exercise of it waived from motives of prudence and peace. The Presbytery were unwilling that so grave and important a subject as that now before you, should be decided on a preliminary question. Sir, had the Presbytery insisted on the exercise of their right, this weighty subject, with all its difficulties, would have met you on the threshold; and your proceedings would have commenced in the midst of agitation and excitement. It was with a view to peace and order, Sir, that the Presbytery adopted the course which is now attempted to be construed to its disadvantage. The question before the court is brought up by appeal and complaint. The question before the court is brought up by appeal and complaint, and as thus brought up,...
