Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from With Christ, My Friend We know that Jesus Christ, our incarnate God, with His body and blood, soul and divinity, with His glorified body, is really, truly, and personally present in the Holy Eucharist. It is from the Altar that He delights most to receive our homage and adoration, to hear our prayers and to grant our petitions. We go to His Temple Home, therefore, when we can do so, to honor Him as our Saviour, to adore Him as our God, to obtain His forgiveness for our sins, to ask Him for all that we need, and to thank Him for His many blessings. We attend His services, as we ought, assist devoutly at His Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and receive Him in Holy Communion worthily and frequently.
