Excerpt: .and faulty is my verse, Still will I to thee my love rehearse: Touch the sweet chord of hallow d friendship dear, And breathe my feelings to thy list ning ear. Thou wilt receive my simple strain of love, As emanating from the fount above. Yes, Mary! our s is celestial fire, Which through eternity will mount the higher; Jordan s cold flood shall never quench the flame--We ll fight the fight of faith, and urge our way To the fair portals of eternal day, Where friendship s beauteous flower will never die, For God, the Lamb, will all its need supply, From his vast ocean of unfathom d love, Whose depths no angel mind can ever prove. But I will tell thee, Mary, how I prize Thy friendly soul, so void of all disguise: In thee, a sweet sharer of my weal and woe,...
