

From Language to Multimodality: New Developments in the Study of Ideational Meaning (Paperback)

By -

Equinox Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 232 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book shares the recent debates by systemic functional linguistics and other linguistic forums. Its principal focus is on how we use language to make meaning of the world, on how the systems and structures of the ideational function of language represent the realisation of our experiences of the world around us. The volume captures the endeavours of scholars working in different contexts, disciplines and languages around the world. Their contributions explore what underlies experiential and logical meaning-making through specific analyses of recently-created, contextually diverse, single texts or collections of texts, from mono- to multimodal texts. The issues addressed are: layers of meaning through the transitivity system; agency and subjectivity; what kinds of participants and circumstances are associated with various processes and how these vary across languages; new ways of researching and capturing the interaction of the experiential function with the other functions of language - interpersonal, textual and logical - in communicative contexts; and, how multimodality and new ways of modelling experience semiotically influence the work of linguists, linguistic description and application. The book displays the dynamic dialogue on...

READ ONLINE
[ 9.32 MB ]

Reviews

A whole new e book with a new perspective. I could comprehend almost everything using this written e book. I am very happy to inform you that here is the greatest ebook i have read in my very own life and may be he best publication for ever.

-- Dee Halvorson

Extensive guideline! Its this kind of good go through. Yes, it really is play, continue to an interesting and amazing literature. I am just pleased to inform you that this is basically the greatest book we have go through inside my own life and could be he greatest pdf for possibly.

-- Madison Armstrong