The females so far as employed for wages are mostly servants, teachers, and laundresses. None of them are clerks, artists, chemists, hotel and boarding-house keepers, journalists, professional musicians, inventors, bankers, brokers, lecturers, preachers, public speakers, or composers. They are not employed to work in the fields or factories. From the best information obtainable it does not appear that their wages, compensation, or general condition has changed during the last fifty years. CONTENTMENT OF THE LABORING CLASSES. The great uniformity of wages paid for skilled labor in the different vocations is a noteworthy fact. There are an abundance of laboring people in Ecuador. There is no important development of new enterprises, and there are no signs that either the rate of wages or the general condition of the working class will be changed for many years to come. When there is a great change it must result from external influences. The working class appears to be much more contented with its condition here than the same class in those countries where a greater degree of intelligence and a higher order of civilization abounds. TRADING. HORATIO N. BEACH, Consul. United States Consulate, Guayaquil, May 27,1884. Note.--Tbe butchers are employed on Sundays the same as other days; likewise the coach-drivera. The barber-shops are open Sunday forenoons. The telegraph offices are open every Sunday at stated hours. II. Factories, Mills, Etc. Wages paid per week of sixty hours in factories or mills...
