Excerpt: .out their wild brains Upon the shingle; evermore they clomb The clinging banks, and, baflied, falling back, Tore in their fall and grappled at the beach, And fell, and all the shingle shrieked in scorn. Thus on the coast the storm, but nearer home It was the master truly! The vexed sea Rose up in moaning impotence of wrath To front the torturer, who drove it on, In writhing coils and ever coiling higher, Like dying drmon, till it topped the isles And hooded Staffl a s height with falling waves. High Mor /en s hills, with voices manifold, Answered the hills of Appin through the night; With drum of thunder, harp of clanging pine, Torches of thunderbolts, hanging of mist, And chorus of wild waters from the fells, The feast of Trenmor rang above the earth. Far on the heights the Rulers of...
